By law No 8 – Equipment Allocation

This By Law relating to Equipment Allocation is made by the Committee under rule 40 of the Canberra Rowing Club (CRC) Constitution.

The CRC Captain has authority to allocate equipment for use for training and racing. The allocation of CRC equipment will be according to the following objectives:

- To ensure CRC equipment is available to training squads to enable the effective use of coaching resources; and
- To optimise usage and lifespan of specialised equipment and maintain the value of CRC's assets.

The Captain has complete discretion in the allocation of CRC equipment.

The Captain may, from time-to-time, publish information on how they intend to exercise their discretion.

Effective date: 1 April 2015
